Scoring:

For the above statements, score 2 points for each question answered with “Yes,” 1 point for each question answered with “In Process,” and 0 points for those answered with “No.”

Scoring Results:

Total Score	0–6 points:	The organization is early in the Planning the Benefit phase.
	7–14 points:	The organization is well into the Planning the Benefit phase but still needs to continue to work through more components and make additional decisions.
	15–18 points:	The organization is finalizing the remaining details/timeline in the Planning the Benefit phase and is almost ready to begin the Implementation/Roll-out phase.

Suggested Next Steps:

If you scored 0-6 points:

- Consider completing the questions in Part 1 of this Readiness Assessment (pages 1-2) to confirm whether the organization has completed the Information Gathering phase and is prepared to successfully move forward through the Planning the Benefit phase.
- Consider using the Commercial Payers section of the Coverage Toolkit and Step-by-Step Guide to Using the Coverage Toolkit for Commercial Health Plans & Self-Insured Employers (Steps #1-3).
- Consider using the Commercial Budget Projection Template Instructions and the Budget Projection Template to create a customized budget projection to estimate the costs of providing the program to your members/employees.
- Consider using the other statements on page 3 of this Readiness Assessment as additional action steps.

If you scored 7-18 points:

- The organization is finalizing Planning the Benefit phase and nearing the Implementation/Roll-out phase.
- Consider using the Case for Coverage page of the Coverage Toolkit and the Pathway to Coverage for Commercial Plans and Employers document to help inform thinking around the process and resources that may help as roll-out is planned or occurs.
- Consider using the Commercial Payers section of the Coverage Toolkit to help complete the Planning the Benefit phase and finish identifying any additional information you need to make decisions as you move forward.
